1	Thank you so much for being very involved and friendly! The fact that you always sent out an email letting us know that you still will be marking our assignments despite late penalties meant a lot! Also for reaching out in absence from tutorials. It actually means alot especially in these challenging times. Thank you for being a wonderful and courteous TA. Thoroughly enjoyed the course and class atmosphere with you.
2	Nice and prepared. And good at communicating
3	The tutorials in this class were a big help and I appreciated the Mr. Fry's flexibility. For example it became clear in some tutorials that no one had done the reading, and instead of sticking to the planned discussions Mr. Fry changed to topics that everyone could engage with even if they had not done the weeks reading. Assignment outlines from the professor were also generally quite lackluster however after speaking with Mr. Fry in tutorials and in a zoom session it became more clear to me what was expected. Alongside this a very long document on different ways to do research for assignments was provided by Mr. Fry. I can't really think of any improvements, tutorials were always engaging and helpful, and Mr. Fry was always available and willing to help with anything.
22	Noah you were easily one of my fav TAs and you ran your tutorials great. Your marking values students work while still giving advice on improvement. Thank you for a great semester :)
23	Noah was a very kind TA. I appreciate the fact that he let students submit written participation. This helped students who have difficulties in speaking in large groups immensely - it was a very considerate and kind gesture to do. Overall, Noah was prepared for every tutorial and even asked students if particular readings were too difficult. He would then explain the main points of the article, that were challenging to understand, in easier and simpler terms. Noah was great!
37	Great job! The course quality was impacted by the strike - tutorials were missed.
